AN INTERIOR VIEW OF ONE OF THE TASTEFULLY DECORATED UNITS

The newest most modern motel in the area—The Country Squire Motel—situated in Opa Township approximately one mile from Lindsay officially opens today.

The 26-unit motel will be managed by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Targon who also operate the Victoria Motel in Lindsay.

Viceo Walter Targon, the 25-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Targon, will take over as manager of the Victoria Motel situated on Lindsay Street South.

Mr. Targon told "The Post" Monday that work would commence shortly on a swimming pool at the newly-constructed motel. Mr. Targon said it was hoped that work on the laying out of the gardens in front of the motel units would get underway with the advent of warmer weather.

A dining room for the convenience of patrons will also open today.

General contractor for the project was Russ Taylor—Kawartha Construction Company—Unfortunately Mr. Taylor will be unable to be present at the opening ceremonies this afternoon, he left recently for a trip to Florida.

One of the many innovations at the Country Squire will be its room-by-room control all electric installation.

WILKINSVILLE

Just a Line or Two
Mr. H. Kernohan last week, was on his way to home to fire on his back. We understood it was burned to the ground. Our sympathy goes out to this family, and we wish the good neighbors of the community will pitch in and see that they get reestablished again.

The writer recently, when coming up from Lindsay to Minden, happened to glance at the Finger post at the entrance to the village of Jewell, startled to see that one of the direction signs was written in Jewish. Haliburton is no doubt becoming cosmopolitan. I assume the sign was pointing the way to the Jewish camp called Eden, Northland, which is located beyond the village of Haliburton.

Last weekend there were a few large lake trout caught on Lake Umbagog. Three of them averaged around 24 pounds, which proves there are still quite a few big ones out there, just waiting to be caught.

We hear that Dan James of Minden is taking a month's vacation in Texas. Bring us back a 10-palloon hat.

We notice, nowadays, picnic grounds in various parts of the County are being bulldozed, free-of-snow and are now available for picnickers. Great credit is due someone to this worthwhile and Titanic effort.

Norland

The roll call was answered by an altarmaid that starts with the initial letter of the person's first name, and was a interesting response was read re letter from Mrs. Thompson, conference and holiday secretary.

Telling of the officers conference for public relations report, which was held at the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, on May 5 and 6, Mrs. H. H. Hartz north of here, motored to

Personals

Mrs. Mary Foutz, who is 94 had the misfortune to fall and poor attendance of interested trappers were on hand to discuss the many items connected with fur sales.

The club has held two very successful fur sales in Haliburton during this year, totaling over $16,000.

A vote was taken to see whether the club would continue on its own. The vote was passed with only one member against the motion. The Haliburton club is now an independent trappers association, the second in Ontario and it hopes to sign up more new members into the association in the near future.

The club's wish is that more local people will take an interest in the fur sales so that the club can build up a large volume of raw skins in Haliburton as time goes on.

Further, the association extends an invitation to any person who would like to see the fur on sale. The president remarked that this was a milestone in the county of Haliburton and it was hoped that the local residents and businessmen would back the club in their new venture.

The meeting closed and coffee was served to the men.

Annual Meeting OF THE FARMER'S UNION MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

PRESIDENT WILLIAM WEIR REPORTS TO POLICYHOLDERS

At the Annual Meeting of the Farmers' Union Mutual Fire Insurance Company, held Saturday afternoon, February 27, 1960, President William Weir reported to the policyholders on the company's progress in 1959.

The company's assets were now over $551,000, with a reserve for the protection of Policyholders of $425,020.89, and insurance in force of $25,544,562.00.

In analyzing the direct losses for the year 1959 of $95,231.64, Mr. Weir brought to the attention of his audience that the success of fire prevention work depended on accurate reports of the actual causes of the fire.

In view of the fact that over $100 of every $3.00 paid for direct losses was from causes unknown, he wondered if the Insureds, from fear of having their claims denied, withheld information, which if voluntary, would permit study, in the hope that future losses of the same nature might be avoided through the distribution of suitable fire prevention literature.

He stated further that in a mutual company, where every Policyholder is a member of the Company, it behooves the Policyholders to take an active interest in fire prevention, for, by the elimination of fire hazards, the loss experience of the Company can be diminished, with the subsequent reduction in the cost of insurance to the member.

Some of the hazards mentioned were, defective chimneys and smoke pipes, use of fire resistive curtains, misuse of electricity, children playing with matches, improper care of oil stoves and oil furnaces, and careless smoking habits.

In dealing with the Company underwriting, he announced that the Company now offers insurance to cover private dwellings and contents in the towns, villages and cities, at competitive prices, furnishing standard cover.

He stated that insurance to meet fire brigade fees, where the Insured has entered into an agreement with his adjacent fire brigade, is available at a moderate premium.

17th Century Pirates First to Recognize Rare Beauty of Jamaica

It was the 17th century pirate who first recognized the rare beauty of the Caribbean island of Jamaica.

Here, they established their headquarters to harass and plunder the rich plate ships carrying gold and silver and precious stones from the New World to fill the depleted treasuries of the old.

Fourteen miles from Kingston, modern and exciting capital city of this island of 4,500 square miles, lie the ruins of Port Royal, once known as the wealthiest and wickedest city in the world.

Under the leadership of Henry Morgan, Welsh bondsman turned privateer, the "Bench of the Court" cursed themselves unequalled not only for their depredations at Port Royal, but their bacchanalian barbarity ashore.

But Port Royal is not only famous for wealth and wickedness. After the earthquake and fire of 1686 wrote finish to the operations of the buccanniers, the town rose like the Phoenix from its own ashes as bastion of British naval supremacy in the Caribbean.

Horatio Nelson, Britain's most famous naval hero, served his apprenticeship here as a young naval lieutenant, and was, for a short time, in 1779, in command of Port Charles, near Port Royal.

Jamaica is one of the oldest settled areas of the New World. Columbus discovered the island in 1494 and it was quickly colonized by Spaniards who began raising sugar and the most important country's rich land.

Britain captured island in 1655 and carried out a program of colonization that developed it into one of the richest of British colonies. But not until Admiral Rodney defeated the French at the Battle of Saint in 1782, was Jamaica's status as a British colony assured.

Wherever you go on the island you see the remains of an early and turbulent history. Cannon on the bluffs at Port Maria where the pirates once camped their ships; New castle the still occupied military fortification located 4,000 feet up in the mountains north of Kingston, built by the British after fever decimated the garrison in the low-lying land around the city; Spanish Town, one-time capital of Jamaica, built during the era of Spanish rule.

Jamaica is an island full of history, an exciting vacation spot for an onlooker of old-world culture whose links with the past remain to-day in its narrow streets, archaic houses and its naval and military relics.

It's only hours away from Canada by Trans-Canada Air Lines operates four weekly return flights to the island from Toronto, with connecting flights to all major Canadian cities.

Typical low-cost return tourist fares are: From Montreal, $250; from Toronto, $237.

Canada's Queen of Outdoors to be Chosen at Show

The fish and game or wildlife conservation association nominating "The Queen" will receive a $100 award to aid in their local conservation projects.

Emphasis continues to be held before the Big Show. Any Canadian girl, other than a professional model or professional athlete, is eligible to enter providing she participates in outdoor sports or recreational activities of some form. Closing date for entries is February 15th.

In addition to a tremendous number of exhibits of outdoor sports and camping equipment and all kinds and sizes of watercraft, there will be a travel show, summer cottage show, motor show, and three dog shows, and bait fly casting demonstrations.

Exciting novelty, sports and animal acts will round out a full 2-hour programme of evening entertainment as a part of the great stage and water revue that will round out the 1969 Sportsman's show in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. And Devine, popular star of mo-

It was the winning design in a national competition initiated by the former Minister of Transport in 1958, and sponsored by the Prestressed Concrete Development Group. Here civil engineer J. D. ### Pilot Project For Town's Senior Citizens

The senior citizens of Lindsay stand to benefit by a new venture by an established service.

A representative of the Red Cross Homekeeper Society at Lindsay said today that a pilot project is being conducted for the town's senior citizens.

The purpose of this study is to find out how many people over 65 need bright their homes during illness.

Senior citizens may call on the Red Cross for a Bureau make to help on a full time or part time basis. The length of service may not exceed three weeks. Fees are charged according to the person's ability to pay.

This is how the service works: a person may have had an operation. They are ready to leave the hospital but have no one to care for them during convalescence. A Homekeeper, who is a competent, responsible woman, is sent in to look after meals, light laundry and shopping. She may be in the day or night from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. or for part of a day depending on the need.

In the Bobcaygeon figure skating club's tests held at the Bobcaygeon Arena the following pairs passed all their tests:

Senior Girls—Joy Devitt, Bertina Jenkins, Joy Kennedy, Elizabeth MacAlpine and Carl Purdy. Maribel Belfry tried and passed skating. Glen J. Lee tried and passed free skating, the Dutch waltz and maxine Karen Nichols passed free skating, figure skating, preliminary dance and Willow waltz.

The judges for the competition were from Lindsay. They were Mrs. Dugman and Mrs. Nichols.

Margaret The Day

London-(CP) - Princess Margaret has named the day - she will meet Anthony Armstrong-Jones at the alter of Westminster Abbey on May 10.

That's the official word from Clarence House - Margaret's residence—issued this morning. There has been no indication as to the other members of the bridal party - aside from the Royal family.

The statement said, simply: "The marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Margaret, Countess of Snowdon, and Anthony Armstrong-Jones will be solemnized at Westminster Abbey on the morning of Friday, May 10, at 11.30 o'clock."

But that simple statement meant the greatest flurry of pomp and ceremony in the of- ficing since the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II in 1953. Sources close to the Palace say the wedding is certain to be a highly colorful occasion - with processions and bands and crowds of spectators lining the streets.

Margaret's common fiancee - Armstrong-Jones - has been living in the Bohemian Palace since their engagement was announced 12 days ago. He can now proceed - a Margaret will draw from Clarence House in another on their wedding day.

Thought for the day

Sawchuk Registers Fine Display As Red Wings Shutout Habs

Terry Sawchuk, who almost hung up his skates three years ago, has moved into a second place in among the National Hockey League's all-time shut out leaders.

The Detroit netminder registered his 81st shutout in nearly 10 seasons Tuesday night as the Red Wings scored their first victory over Montreal Canadiens at the Detroit Olympia in nearly two years, 3-0.

Tony Thompson and Alex Connell shared second place in the League's all-time shutout list.

George Hainsworth set the league record of 84 shutouts during 10 seasons with the Montreal Canadiens and Toronto Maple Leafs (1926-36).

Sawchuk quit the Boston Bruins in disgust in the middle of the 1936-37 season and was traded to the Red Wings the following season. His steady netminding during the present campaign has helped the Red Wings wipe out the memory of their dismal last place finish in the 1936-37 season.

Just a Line or Two

There is a very interesting account of a story that was told to me some time ago by a lady up here.

When this part of the country was first settled by the Irish, her grandfather witnessed the cutting down of a thorn tree that grew in the middle of a field. The cutting was done when a site was being prepared for a house. The man in charge of the clearing operations had to remove the tree. None of the workmen would touch it. When the root was dug out, hundreds of white mice (supposed to be the work people or fairies) ran from under it and when the rash man was cutting a way from the root and around the tree to empty its some distance away, the horse shield and crushed him against a wall, injuring his leg which had to be amputated.

Talking about rodents, did you people in Victoria County know that there is no such thing as a house rat in Victoria County. What has happened to them after they arrive here no one knows. They have been seen jumping out of box cars in the station in the village of Haliburton, and that is the end of them, they are never seen again. I would suggest that the skeptical say this is not so. A person of my acquaintance sometime ago poured some dirt from the country into a rat hole in Lindsay and the rats disappeared. We are not trying to sell you earth, you can have all you want for free.

Don't Pick A Bull

The Horned Twins
When you have a set of twin calves born, you are not one jump ahead. "The occurrence of twins in a dairy herd isn't economical," says Dr. J. C. Reanne, O.A.C. dairy cattle researcher.

There are several reasons why twin calves don't pay. One of the most important, says Reanne, is the freemartin holler that can never reproduce. Mixed twins (bull and heifer) occur in about 14 per cent of all births. And over 90 per cent of these heifer calves are sterile. There is a higher percentage (5 per cent) of prematurely born and stillborn calves in multiple births too.

The calving interval following twins is usually longer than after singles. "This could cut down on the lifetime number of calves per cow," he says. "And it could increase breeding troubles in your herd."

Top producing cows may have twins more often than the lower producers. But Reanne says "Recent U.S. research shows only a 3 pound butterfat advantage for the twin-bearing cows." Regardless of the production level, winning still reduces the butterfat produced in a lactation by about 21 pounds. This is the result of extra strain on the cow when she freshens.

North American homes will be getting bigger. In fact, the formula will be two rooms per person before the end of the 1980's. So say those experts of the gas appliance manufacturing association.

determine healing and conditioning requirement of average homes of the future.

The association's managing director — Harold Massey — said "this two-rooms-per-person formula will call upon heating and cooling equipment to comfort 33 per cent more space in the average home of 1989 than is now the case." But, he added, gas heating engineers are making plans to meet this requirement without increasing the size of furnaces or boilers on their cost to the consumer.

The present-day gas furnace or boiler... capable of heating an eight or nine room house... is no bigger than a two or three drawer filing cabinet... and take up little more than two square feet of floor space.

These dimensions, Massey said, make it possible to install the "business end" of a gas central heating system just about any place... upstairs, under the stairway in the utility room.

This, he said, will enable the home planner to convert the entire basement into a living, work or recreation area.

Surviving are six children. Florence (Mrs. Harold Chatterton) of Kitchener, Buelha (Mrs. Geo. Hildebrandt), Mrs. Wayne Percy Norman and Fred, all of Lindsay and Alford of Brantford.

A large number attended the funeral service held on Tuesday, March 1st at his late residence. Officiating was the S.A. officer of Preston Falls. Pallbearers were Messrs Roy Brant, Vernon LeCraw, Chas. Roughly, Roy Phillips, Raymond Gossin and Everett Fountain.

Hennessey Scores Two

FORMER BELLEVILLE PLAYER LEADS COMETS TO 8-5 WIN

Finney Lumbermen and Napane Comets continued up the round robin tournament "A" group semifinal series at the Kiwanis Arena last night and will now meet in a four-out-of-five game to decide the group winner. The Comets, blasted off for an eight to five win last night, led by a recent Belleville senior player, Ted Toppanzini with his three goal effort. The majority of the Napane players have senior hockey experience but the Lumbermen gave them a run for the win, minus the services of their crissis defenceman, Don McChesney.

The Comets led three to one at the end of the first period, only to have the Lumbermen catch up to them before the middle of the second period. Napane, however, bounced back with three goals in six minutes and matched Lindsay lead from goal then on.

Most of the Napane attack came on accurate screened bullet shots from ten feet out which gave them a lead which Lumbermen could not shake. The Lumbermen scored the puck into the net and the Lumbermen scored the picture plays of the game and sharp moves around the Napane end.

Bill Hennessey was top markman for the Lumbermen with two clever goals. Ben Floyd, Bob Crowlen, John Jackson, added one each. Ken Gilmere, Martin and Griffin each scored one for Napane.

The best of seven final series will start at Napane tomorrow night with Napane at Lindsay Friday night. The best of five Napane Saturday night and the fourth game will be played in Lindsay on Monday.

Close to two hundred fans were on hand for last night's game and the calibre of hockey displayed should see a full house for the Friday tussle at the local arena.

Labour Board Said Satisfied

Certification of the United Auto Workers' Union at bargaining agent for employees of the recently - transferred Schultz Die Casting Company was announced in Windsor Tuesday.

The UAW was bargaining agent for the firm before its move here from Wallaceburg. George Burt, Canadian director of the UAW, said notification was received from the Ontario Labour Relations Board. The certification came without a vote since the board was satisfied that more than 58 per cent of eligible workers were paid-up UAW members.

Burt said his union is particularly pleased with the certification because the company "ran away from Wallaceburg after having contractual relations with the UAW for many years."

The company is reported to be employing some 180 hourly-rated workers at the present time.

A conveyer has been installed at the point of first ice removal and this will help the blocks of ice onto trucks to be hauled away. The firm runs from four to eight inches thick.

Consideration is being given to providing lost shots don't come into the river which will be broken up into pieces too small for the conveyor to cope with.

IN NORTH SEA

An experimental light buoy made of plastic and manufactured by a Huddersfield firm of engineers is now being tested in the North Sea off Harwich. Here the plastic buoy is seen afloat after being laid by a tender of Trinity House, the organisation which looks after many of Britain's lighthouses and buoys. The plastic buoy is to remain in the sea for a period of twelve months so that the designers and users may gain experience of its ability to withstand severe conditions at sea. The revolutionary buoy made of reinforced plastic weighs only two tons compared with the six or more tons of a conventional steel buoy of the type as shown in use around the English coast.

Toronto — (UPI)—A coroner's jury has suggested that hospitals tighten their regulations covering the release of patients.

An autopsy showed she died from a rupture spleen but also had three fractured ribs and a misplaced collarbone.

The jury said patients should not be permitted to exercise their own discretion about release from hospitals until a hospital officer was satisfied there was no serious injury.

The 46-year-old housewife had told St. Michael Hospital officials that she was suffering no pain.

Hearty Irishman's Dinner
Sure as if your name is Kelly, Clancy, Ryan or O'Malley you needn't have been reminded that Thursday's St. Pat's Day. As for a great day for the warrior of the green even if you aren't an Irishman. The celebrations can be doubly exciting if you're not a hearty Irishman's menu planned for the Gaelic. Start the morning out with a bit o' heaven in the form of golden mint pancakes. Prepare by heating together one half cup sifted flour, one cup milk, one-fourth teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon sugar, and one-half teaspoon orange rind. Spread with filling made by mixing together one and one-half cups freshly chopped walnuts, four to five tablespoons confectioners' sugar, three tablespoons chopped candied cherries and enough orange juice to give a moderate stiff consistency. Spread this filling over one-half of each pancake and roll up in quarters. Before serving, heat in a 400-degree oven for about three minutes. Give dinner a touch of Ireland by serving hot blarney scones. Spread with creamy butter and rich cherry or strawberry preserves—these individual breads are bound to please even an orangeman.

Rashley Buns
And for that bit o' sweet on St. Patrick's Day... surprise your kids with rashley buns. Add three-fourths of a cup of sugar to one-half cup soft butter and cream until light and fluffy. Mix well with one egg yolk and one-fourth cup milk. Then add one and one-half cups sifted cake flour and one teaspoon baking powder which have been sifted together. Beat this mixture well and blend in thoroughly another one and one-half cups sifted cake flour.

Fashion the dough into little balls about one and one-half inch thick. Flatten and top with a half teaspoon of raspberry jam. After rolling the cookies in half and sealing the edges... brush top with a slightly beaten egg white and bake on ungreased cookie sheets about 20 minutes at 400 degrees.

Ready To Vanishing cream is good for hands that do little or no heavy work. The dry hands should be managed with facial cream.

In Memoriam

ENGLISH — In loving memory of a dear husband and father Crawford English who was taken from us so suddenly March 18th, 1959:

The memory of our loved one does not fade.
Is like a thread of gold
It does not dull or tarnish
Or grow the least bit old
His memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part
God has him in His keeping.
We have him in our hearts.
He left us so suddenly
His thoughts to us unknown.
But he left a memory
We're so proud to own.
— Lovingly remembered by his wife Olive and daughter Donna. (17)

FACTS for FARMERS

Some news of special interest to our farm subscribers

TREAT SEED FOR DISEASE CONTROL

The problem with most of our crop diseases is that you can't see the diseases by just looking at the seed. You don't know you're in trouble until it's in the field. Then it's too late.

"Try to prevent the disease before the seed goes into the ground," says Stan Young, extension agronomist at O.A.C.

With chemical seed treatment you can kill disease organisms on the seed and protect the seed while it's in the ground. If you don't treat, disease can cut your yields by 30 per cent.

"Best place to get your seed treated is a seed cleaning plant," advises this Ontario Department of Agriculture crops specialist. They have the equipment to give a complete and even treatment that will penetrate and last.

When you take your seed to the plant, have it cleaned first. They can still use the screenings for feed.

Store treated seed in a ventilated or open building. The vapors are poisonous. If the treated seed isn't colored make sure you tag it plainly.

The Human

Dr. Steinhorn, you advised the other girl to confide in her family doctor, but I have no doctor to confide in. Will you please, if it is all right, print this letter in your column? I want to be helped, but most of all I want to know what I can do to help myself—and be wanted instead of rejected.

I think if you solve my problem you'll be helping a lot of troubled girls who are afraid to admit or believe that they are emotionally ill. Thank you very much. Signed, "Maybe hopeless."

COMMENTS: Perhaps I can help you by reprinting a letter just received from "Concerned reader," who read a previous column about teenage emotional turmoil.

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: Regarding your recent column on the 15-year-old girl who suffers from distresses probably caused by family problems, I cannot rest until I ask you to refer her to a group of people who are experienced at helping persons with her type of illness.

If you have her address please write her to contact the Order of St. Luke in her city. Any Episcopal minister listed in her telephone directory can give her the proper person to contact. The members of this Order have had first-hand experience in dealing with emotional disorders and have found the answer, a complete cure and a wonderful new life. Since it is quite possible this child's family may be unable to afford extended psychiatric treatment, she could be of special benefit to her, as these educated people make no charge for their services. They know both psychiatry and God—and your letter writer needs both, desperately. Write to "Young," "Concerned Reader."

NOTE: I have no personal experience with the work of the Order of St. Luke is doing. However, if it has good medical supervision, emotionally disturbed teenagers (and others) may find here the beginning of the solution to their problems.

MARINA BEING DEVELOPED IN LUGG

Estimate Finished Product Will Accomodate 45 Small Craft

The idea of March have never witnessed anything like what is going on out Lindsay Street South way these clear, brisk days.

A start — and a big one — has been made on the Marina project, being developed by Elmer Wassnaker, a veteran of 15 years in the boat business.

Win J. McDougall, of Sunderland, is the contractor who has been assigned the task of excavating the inlet for boating of the marina. A channel six feet deep, 80 feet wide and about 100 feet long has already been dugged out of the riverbank. Mr. Wassnaker estimates the finished product will accommodate up to 45 small craft.

Anxious that the venture isn't overplayed at this stage, he simply wants to let it be known that it is underway.

Tentative plans call for the installation of gas tanks on the river front (not in the marina inlet) so as to facilitate service to transient traffic without molesting those benefiting for longer days.

For the coming summer, Mr. Wassnaker plans to use the basement of his home for storing boating supplies. However, future plans call for the building of a service depot and a store which will stock fishing tackle and lines in demand by river travelers.

According to the man whose brainchild the undertaking is, he had some friendly callers yesterday who failed to justify themselves but engaged in shooting some film of the development.

When visited Friday afternoon, Mr. Wassnaker and some of his workmen were engaged in hauling a kingfisher live ashore. The tree had hung for many years leaning out over the water but it had to be felled to accommodate the enterprise.

The stretch of Scupper River, which is the focus of the marina is especially beautiful in its winter setting.

The disastrous earthquake at Agadir, Morocco, provided Canadians with an example of the work of the Red Cross, which this month is making its annual appeal for funds.

The Canadian Red Cross has sent a contingent of nurses and a load of supplies to help the victims, and to join the people of other nations who are helping the homeless and the injured at Agadir.

Canadians who have supported the Red Cross can be proud that they have contributed to this great humanitarian work, which has resulted in the deaths of many hundreds of people who died as a result of last week's disaster.

In remote parts of Canada, where medical services of the kind we take for granted in the United Kingdom are few and far between, Red Cross nurses are on the job, delivering babies when no doctor is available, caring for the sick, and ministering in other ways to the needs of people who are isolated from their fellow men.

Here in our community the Red Cross conducts several programs which are eminently worthy of the public's support. The water safety program aimed at reducing the shockingly high number of drownings which take place annually in Ontario, for instance, distributes thousands of lifebuoys to schools. The distribution of fish oil capsules to schools, to help maintain our children's health, is another project which benefits the community.

To name all the activities of the Red Cross would require much space, but one program which should not go unquestioned is the work which is done in the hospital inpatient service.

The Red Cross has undertaken to supply all of Ontario's hospitals with blood needed for transfusions, and the success of the arrangement is dependent on the co-operation of the public. If the society succeeds in supplying all the needed blood, the taxpayers of the province will be saved a substantial item of cost which otherwise has to be included in the cost of the Ontario hospital inpatient service.

The Red Cross is working everywhere for all of humanity. Unselfish people should support its work as generously as they are able. —Evelyn Guide.

CHASING ITS TAIL

After one of the longest court hearings in recent years, Canada's first anti-merger, trust or monopoly" section of the anti-combines law has resulted in acquittal of the company charged. Significantly, acquittal turned on the government's failure to show that the public interest was harmed. This is a vital point. Other anti-combines prosecutions have interpreted the law as meaning that a combine is illegal in itself, regardless of the public policy decision.

In the case, heard in the Supreme Court of Ontario by Chief Justice McRuer, Canadian Breweries Limited was charged with having created a monopoly by purchasing or acquiring control of 31 companies. In the five-week hearing, the Crown filed nearly a thousand exhibits and brought witnesses from eight provinces. The crown produced the company, despite its bigness, has not monopolized the market. It found that within the industry there is no restraint on competition in quality of product, taste, packaging and service.

The judgment noted the obvious fact that there is price-fixing within the brewing industry and that prices are fixed by provincial governments and not by competing firms. And it might be added as a footnote that Mr. Justice McRuer decided the various mergers that formed the larger company resulted in a better product.

The Canadian Breweries' case clears up one very important point, and the connection it must be remembered that the government investigated the company over a period of some years, that it submitted a mountain of evidence and hired the best legal talent to represent its arguments. Despite the extent of this effort, the court's decision repudiates the attitude implicit in the government's anti-combines legislation that, in business, bigness is a crime.

Actually, in its anti-combines legislation the government seems something like the bear chasing its tail. It is the government's tax policies that encourage many business mergers, particularly taxation in the succession duties field. Too, the increased efficiency in industry that Ottawa has encouraged if not producers are to compete with foreign competitors often is possible only with the bigness in business that Ottawa is prejudiced against. And, finally, there are reports that because of the suspicion and uncertainty engendered by Ottawa's anti-combines legislation, plants have closed down when a merger with a stronger company in the same field would have prevented it; business-men have feared that, acting with the best of motives and entirely without immoral intent, they could run afoul of the anti-trust laws.

But perhaps the cardinal point in the decision is the Canadian Breweries case is its recommendation finding that to register a conviction in anti-combines prosecutions the government must establish harm to the public. —C. J. Harris

Reabro School Crowded, Request Accommodation At New Lindsay School

Lindsay's newest public school has been named. 2 Ops. have requested the school be called "Parkview" and the school board has agreed to accommodate 20 students now attending Reabro School. Crowded conditions at that school were cited today by board chairman Joe Stimples.

In a public school six entries submitted the name suggestion for the school. This created a bit of a problem in awarding the $25 prize money which had been offered by Budgey Lumber Co. The firm decided to raise the prize to $50 and each of the six students who submitted the name "Parkview" received five dollars for their effort.

The school board chairman said there were hundreds of entries in the contest, many of them original.

School Crowded
Lindsay may be getting a new 200 seat public school in the next year, said Mr. Stimples.

Dear Editor:

Firstly I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to Mayor Burrows, and the council of the town of Lindsay for the letters of sympathy received by me at the Ross Memorial Hospital. It is letters of this kind that make me feel much a part of this great community of ours.

Secondly on behalf of myself and the members of Phony Lumbermen I would like to make a direct appeal to the sports-minded people of the community to get out and support our local team at the weeks life past we find these teams representing men and women in the Province of Ontario.

As a consequence we find that the operation of these travelling expenses, time off work, etc., all contribute to the cost of the team. We must be absorbed by the team itself, and the only possible way to do this is by the tremendous cost of the outstanding fees were—Crafs, Floral arrangements, 4th club work, Home Economics, exempted competition, and public relations.

Body of Walter V. Peels Recovered from Scugog

The long, anxious days and nights are over for the family and friends of the late Walter V. Peels. Mr. Peels' body was taken from the Scugog River Thursday afternoon shortly before four o'clock.

Recovery of Mr. Peels' body was a former member of the Scugog River fire department and was in the Scugog River at a point near the Wellington Street bridge.

Score of people including divers from the Trent Canal System's Peterborough division worked methodically in a concerted effort to recover the body.

There was an atmosphere of relief among the men who had given of their time and energy in the cause when they were recovered with success.

It was thought a great relief had been lifted from the shoulders of the men who had been to the river to recover his body for his bereaved family.

Mr. Peels' body was recovered by PC Doug Thompson of the Windsor Police Department, who was in the boat with Mr. Peels' body when it was recovered from the river.

Capturing The Secrets of Ome Meals
Oven meals give homemakers a sense of freedom. When food is cooked in the oven there is no need to stand over a hot stove, stirring or waiting for that pot to boil. In oven cooking, the cook does her part in preparing the food and regulating the oven. Then the oven takes over the possibility.

Plan to serve oven product in the baking dishes and then turn down on extra dish washing. When a whole meat, or most of a meal, is cooked in the oven, you may use less of it, so it's good for you during the time-to-the stove cooking. Save by cooking more than one food in the oven at one time. Foods cooked in the oven retain more food value when relatable differences in time and temperatures are followed. Save those vitamins and minerals in this way, advises the Home Economics Service of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Household utensils are both time and money, regardless of the type of oven used. When possible, use the type of utensils suggested in the recipe. If the pans are warped, unevenly dished, or too deep for the amount of food placed in them, uneven heating and browning will result. Flat, even-bottomed, straight-sided utensils conserve heat. Metal pans should be light weight, bright and smooth, to give best results. Roasting pans should be shallow and open and fitted with a rack. Glass and earthenware are practical and attractive since the food may be baked and served in the same dish. When glass utensils are used in place of metal ones, a 25 degree lower oven temperature or a shorter, baking time is recommended.

White Fat
To clean a white fat hat, use a mixture of one quart of corn meal, one cup oil, and one cup flour. Cover the hat with this and allow to remain for 24 hours, then scrub off. The brims will bend and act as wedges.

Chair Repair
If chair legs or rungs are broken, you can lock them securely in their holes by driving small brads in the sides of the holes at an angle before forcing the leg through or rung back into the hole. The brads will bend and act as wedges.

FACTS FOR FARMERS

Some news of special interest to our farm subscribers

CLEANER COWS WITH LESS STRAW

One of the standard complaints about the leading barn is: "I just can't seem to keep my cows clean, and they're taking more straw too."

Professor Frank Theakston, O.A.C. engineer, says: "Try making better use of what straw you have." He suggests these four ways to cut down your straw bill:

—Throw the manure droppings to one side of the leading area every morning. It can save you a lot of straw.

—Bed the leading area at night, just before the cows lie down. They will stay a lot cleaner. If you bed in the morning, the cows will tramp the straw all day and it's dirty by night.

—Put your water in a place where the cattle can drink without tramping over the bedded area. If it's in the leading shed, an outside wall or near the entrance is best.

—Try cutting the strings on baled straw and dumping whole bales into the leading area. The cows seem to spread the straw just enough to lie down comfortably, and less straw is wasted.

WIREWORMS

Ottawa, Mar. 14, 1960—Agricultural chemicals have made life miserable for the wireworm in southwestern Ontario over the past decade.

Modern insecticide such as lindane and aldrin, developed since 1948, protect field and garden crops from attack, says J. A. Beag of the Canadian Entomology Laboratory, and have reduced this pest to a non-economic level.

Before 1948, wireworms could only be controlled by cultural practices. Cultivators decreased infestations of species that lay their eggs in sod land. However, extensive cultivation practiced in the sandy soils in southwestern Ontario, increased the number of the eastern field wireworms, as females of this species

The funeral service was held on Monday, Feb. 29th from the home of his daughter and son-in-law, with the Rev. S. Snowden of Millbrook officiating, assisted by James

Lights Turned Out To End Donnybrook

Finney Lumbermen were down fighting in the second period of the referees' hands-off fifteen-minute in penalties, eleven majors and two minors, when the lights turned out.

Finally after OHA competition is slated for the Kewlinia Arena next Tuesday, Lindsay League Bantams go to Brampton to fight, with the second game of their best five here next Monday. This set is for the Thursday night. The next game is the championship of Ontario.

Tommy Hutton set up the final goal for the Lumbermen, digging the puck out of the ice jam, and forcing his way to the net. The Lumbermen barked it home. Spratt ran up the boards while the also got an assist on the play.

Many Thrilling Games This game would have OHA activity for the Finney Lumbermen who have provided many thrilling games for the handful of spectators who attended previous to the playoffs. In bringing out to the Napanee Comets, Intermediate "A" champions for the past two seasons, the Lumbermen strictly home brew team with one or two exceptions, have no apologies to offer. Had the team been able to get in a regular OHA grouping early in the season, they could doubt have been able to muster more support and had a better season financially. The hard blow came to the team when manager Len Francis and two players Ted Campbell and Jack Graham were injured in a car accident on the way to a game. All report, one is still in hospital, Len is in a cast.

Bob Lindsay from Pat Gilmour made it two to nothing for Napanee at 1:17 of the second period. The Lumbermen got this one back on a nifty goal by Horton, assisted by Campbell and Burns at 2:47.

Martin and Horton were chased for roughing at 5:44 when Martin tried to push Horton into the Napanee bench. Jack Brady and Gowden, squared off but no blows were struck. The referee called the increase in roughing at the nine minute mark. Play continued to roughen up as the period progressed with opposing players bumping at every opportunity. Finally Ross McNeil and Gerry Brady traded punches as after a high sticking go, behind the Lindsay net. Before the officials could intervene all the players on the ice except the Napanee goals were into the brawl. The officials stood back and kept score. Finally after the referee ordered the lights turned out, the players cooled off and the penalties were tallied up. McNeil and Brady got two for high sticking and five for fighting each. For Napanee, Jack Brady, Ted Pozzani, John Green, and Jack Martin were given five minutes each for enforcing the fight. For Lindsay, Bob Gowden, Don Stewart, Len Hennessey, Don McDonald and George Kemp got five each for enforcing. Since only two players on a team can serve penalty time, seven of the penalties were delayed. The major penalty to Lindsay did not actually start until 5:33 of the third period. The referee kept the clock crowded till the third period.

During the fourth-side session, which lasted seventeen minutes, Napanee proved the better opportunists, and ran in one goal in the second and four more in the third. The Lumbermen scored from Goodfellow and Douglass at 16:45 of the second.

cluding a league bonus of $1,000 for winning their 3rd NHL championship in a row. Lord Stanley's silverware is a $50 bowl which is now worth close to $15,000 after several remodeling jobs. It is the oldest trophy in competition by professional athletes in North America. It was donated in 1893 by Frederick Arthur, Lord Stanley of Preston.

The Canadiens—finalists for nine years and in the playoffs for 12 consecutive years, defeated the Black Hawks 4-2 in the semi last night when the Maple Leaf-dominated Boston. Montreal then whipped the Leafs in five games in the final.

The Leafs, who finished second, 13 points behind the Canadiens, face the fourth-place Red Wings tonight and Saturday at Maple Leaf Gardens, and then shift to Detroit's Olympia for games three and four Sunday and Tuesday.

Montreal will present the all-time playoff record in the playoffs (13-10-1) in the 38-year-old captain of the Canadiens has played in more Stanley Cup games (25) played on seven cup championship teams, scored more winning goals (18), more playoff goals (18) than any other player (12), most goals (81) and one scored five goals in one playoff game against the Maple Leafs.

Canadian teams have won the cup 26 times compared to only 15 for the four U.S. teams, Detroit, New York, Chicago and Boston.

Only one team has ever won the cup in the shortest possible time. The Detroit Red Wings of 1955 won four straight from Toronto and the final four from Canadiens. Toronto is the only team ever to lose three games and come back to win the next four to take the cup.

Montreal Coach Toe Blake—who dined his left shoulder in a recent accident Tuesday, is the only coach among the four pilots to have won the cup. Open house was held at the Minden Public School recently with a large number of parents in attendance. Work was displayed in all the rooms for everyone to see and inspect.

Mr. Morgan then took over the meeting as he had the program for Parents Day. He told those present the changes being made in the course of study in Social Studies which was being changed to geography and history in Grades 7 and 8 and gave other points of interest.

Mr. Morgan then introduced the speakers who had some phase of education at their topic.

Medals went to Elizabeth McKay, Tanya Rowland, Cerification went to Gloria Harrison, Cheryl Walker, Esther Schmitt, Carolyn Coburn, Linda Wagg, Susan Harrison, Tanya Hewitt, Barbara Deacon, Jane McKay, Patty Deacon, Barry Rowland, Cathy Berry, Dianne Earle, Dorothy McCracken and Stuart Brandon.

Medals and certificates for 1959-60 to the winners of the speaking contest by the school board chairman, Mr. F. Watson.

Back in 1939 . . . an astute reporter . . . weary and foot-sore . . . trudged through the futuristic exhibit of the world's fair and observed: "What the world of tomorrow needs is a place to sit down."

Today, we are in the world of tomorrow . . . surrounded with undreamed of automatic appliances and devices . . . cognizant of a whole new vocabulary of space words and scientific terms . . . taking for granted such things as superhighways and superline means of travel. But one appliance manufacturers association (GAS) observes that the "place to sit down" has come slowly to the one zone where it's needed most—the kitchen. Many homemakers still must stoop to peel potatoes, put down a recipe or soup . . . unless they choose to lug the work into the living or dining room. In fact documented studies show that the reason many people don't eat at a good breakfast is because they don't have a convenient spot where they can sit down and eat it.

But the tide is turning, according to an association report. In both new homes and in modernization projects the place to sit down is being moved toward more compact, comfortable dining areas and even to desk facilities. Even in the most compact apartments . . . where every inch of space is golden . . . the urge to sit down is prevailing.

The group says the reason for the change lies both in human physiology and in the living pattern that has restored the kitchen as the family meeting centre. Modern appliances contribute to the trend, too . . . they're more adaptable to sitting than standing . . . and homemakers mean to take advantage of this.

Carden Reeve Would Re-Write Assessment Act

Victoria County council is convinced it should do something to derive more revenue from a township within the county which is reportedly privately owned.

The township is Longford and it is reported to be owned by American interests which are using it as a private hunting and recreational preserve.

It came under discussion when Reeve John Childs of Dalton and Reeve C. O. Hodgson introduced a resolution calling for the construction of a road to serve Northern York County's lakeland. The resolution suggested that the road be hooked onto secondary road 505 at Uplink and running through to Vankoughnet in Muskoka, just beyond the northern limits of Victoria County. It proposed to have the new stretch of road link up with an undeveloped road right-of-way passing through part of privately-owned Longford Township.

Reeve Childs said he thought the road would serve to open up a beautiful lake area in Northern York County which in turn would bring more revenue to the county.

Reeve C. O. Hodgson told county councillors he would like to see something done about Longford township to make it provide more income for the county. Assessor-treasurer timberman himself, Mr. Hodgson said there was enough timber in the township to pay for it. He charged that Longford Reserves, owners of the township were not developing it as it would be. They have some little development on Brown Lake—a main lodge and 16 or 18 cottages—but a part from that the township is standing unexploited.

Cutting attention to some of the many lovely lakes and running, he named Bear Lake, in particular which has a length of four miles and just terms with fish.

Referring to the present land assessment on the vast land area, Mr. Hodgson said that it should be much higher. He also said Victoria County's assessor didn't agree with him but that should be assessed for a minimum of 80 cent per acre.

"I am not content," Mr. Hodgson declared, "to sit back and see people pay taxes when we've got a gold mine at our back door." The county should get at least $25,000 a year in taxes out of that township but it's not going to be properly assessed unless somebody does something about it."

Noting there were 36 beautiful lakes in the township, Mr. Hodgson said he felt Premier Frost should be asked to reassess it for the county. "If he gets a road in there, it'll be as fast as a gold rush."

Reeve Ed Murphy of Carden township said "I think we're kind of satisfied with that Longford township."

C. O. Hodgson: "Let's get it then and another thing, Mr. Murphy wanted to know why can't we assess it for what it's worth. Longford township is one of the greatest beauty spots in Victoria... a 47,000-acre township... it's not enough—it's got the best tourist lakes in Ontario."

At another point in the discussion Reeve Murphy advocated having the county appoint an assessor to check the revision of the Assessment Act. We should ask the assessor to check the Assessment Act to read that land be assessed for what it is used for, in other words, it should be on the basis of what it could be used to greatest advantage," he declared.

Some news of special interest to our farm subscribers

The results of a study of marketing boards in Canada by the Economic Division of the Canada Dept. of Agriculture have been released by Ottawa.

It has turned up such facts as the use that almost every farmer in the well-developed agricultural communities of Ontario is affected by one or more marketing board. The only exception to the rule are the few who specialize in production of apples, beef cattle, poultry or sheep.

In Nova Scotia 28 per cent of all farmers are affected by marketing board plans while in Quebec 22 per cent are so affected. In all the other provinces less than 20 per cent are affected by marketing boards.

Canada entered 1950 with a total of 66 producers marketing boards incorporated under provincial marketing board legislation. Of these, 34 were in Quebec, Ontario had 18 marketing boards, including three schemes in effect under the authority of the Ontario Milk Industry Act.

Agricultural produce sold under marketing board plans in 1958 was valued at $63.3 million dollars — or 13 per cent of cash income from the sale of farm products.

Of the total, $20 million was in Ontario where 37 per cent of all agricultural products were sold under a marketing board plan.

Many Men Consider
Carving Omelette Task
Although carving meat is not a difficult job, there are certain tips which make the carver's task easier. Both the carver and the cook can do much to make this job interesting.

Carve of Milk at Home
Simple but Important
In order to prevent loss of quality - cleanliness, flavor and food value - milk must be handled properly in the home. To be at its best, fresh milk needs to be kept clean, cold, covered and away from direct light, advises the Home Economics Service of the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture.

A good practice is to take each new bottle or carton of milk and swirl it in the sink time it unpoured under running water and dry it with a clean cloth. Then place the milk in the refrigerator promptly. Milk can be expected to retain good quality and flavor for at least three or four days if it is stored near the door.

Milk in glass containers which stands in a sunny window or on a table, or in a doorway, loses its vitamin content, may develop an off-flavor from sunlight, or it may become rancid. If it is to be used as an insulating receiving box for milk which is delivered in glass bottles and can't be refrigerated properly.

The good cook and consistent housewife knows that a large roast can be carved more easily after it stands for about half an hour. Plenty of platter space and elbow room help the carver. Plates must be heated to keep serving warm. Proper cooking of the meat, which should be done in a covered pan, is also important. In addition, the Home Economics Service of the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture.

Repainting House Plants

is Best Done in Spring

House plants require repotting when the plant has grown too large for its present container, and has become bound, when the soil has become exhausted, or when the soil is too dry and the plant is unhealthy. Although repotting should be done whenever the best time is in the spring.

When shifting a plant to a larger pot, the soil should be richer soil than for seedlings or cuttings. Dump the plant out of its old pot, and shake the soil off the roots. Then, using the pot, upside down, tap the rim of the pot on the edge of the bench, keeping your fingers over the soil to prevent the plant from falling. Remove the old drainage pieces and discard some of the old soil from the top of the new pot. Then, using all sides of the plant, firm the soil with your fingers, or a narrow strip of wood and

Lindsay Only Use Two Lines in Torrid Battle

Playing before one of the largest crowds in the city, the Lindsay Legion Bantams last night went down 5-3 to the Brampton Bantams.

The second game of the OMHA Provincial finals was played at a torrid pace throughout the first really serious threat of the game by the visitors they opened the scoring. Bill Carson lashed the puck into the net.

Wayne McLaughlin, who played the brilliant game defensively for the local squad throughout the evening, scored the equalizer late in the first period on pass from Kevin Hinton.

Seconds after leaving the penalty box Don Bowry found the puck a screaming drive from the Don Bowry.

Hefferman missed a glorious chance to put the locals into the lead when he was shot past the open cage shoot by the buzzer. At the buzzer Lou Hefferman's goals were nullified as the visitors net.

At the opening of the second period Lindsay started off where they left last night, with Kevin Hinton, who was getting through a tremendous amount of work for the local crew went close with two bullet shots.

George Babcock, playing his heart out in steaming with the sticks and charging up the ice in an effort to increase the lead, came close with a real shot.

It was all Lindsay now and the Brampton goalies must be somewhat nervous as the game continued.

Jim Swinson passed to Kevin Hinton, who fired into the net. The local crew went close with two bullet shots.

FACTS for FARMERS

Some news of special interest to our farm subscribers

A federal official says that while seed catalog varieties of canning beans are replacing those with colored seeds.

This report comes from W. N. Wital, of the genetics and Plant Breeding Research Institute at the Central Experimental Farm in Ottawa.

According to Wital, the significance of seed coat color is closely related to the appearance of the canned product.

Undeveloped seeds of canned, white-seeded types usually remain greenish in color. This means they remain unnoticeable when served if the pods happen to break open during cooking.

Seeds or fragments in colored-seeded varieties frequently turn a dark olive-green or brownish shade and may also impart a dark color to the beans.

Dark seeds have been particularly noticeable in many of the canned yellow-podded varieties. This discoloration defects from the general appeal of the canned product and is likely to be more pronounced when beans mature beyond the optimum stage for canning.

Pearl-green and tender-green peas are new, white-seeded canning beans which, after three years' trial at Ottawa—have compared favorably with the standard dark-seeded tender-green variety.

Promising new white-seeded varieties are tender-white, slender-white, earliness and highgrade. Kinghorn and ar-

Mission Band Receives Award

Blackheads (PNS) — The Mission Band met last week with 12 children and 2 leaders present. Worship centre was arranged by Graham Duff and Roll Call given by Blair Marten.

Prisonal halls may be bottle fed if a wax won't take them. Ontario Dept. of Agriculture experts suggest this substitute use 13 ounces of evaporated milk, 13 ounces of water, and 2 tablespoons of corn syrup per quart. Warm this to body temperature and feed it with a nipple bottle. Three or four feedings are better than one large one for the first few days.

Keep brooder temperatures between 95 and 98 degrees F. Two inches above the litter at the edge of the brooder for first-week chicks. So says Roy Walker, poultry specialist at OAC. Reduce the temperature 5 degrees per week to about 70 degrees F. He suggests this guide regulate the brooder temperature to a level where the chicks appear to be most comfortable, when they form a ring around the edge of the brooder, the level is right.

Royals Recall Connolly, Ruff

Montreal—(UPI)—The Montreal Royals have recalled Wayne Connolly and Robert Ruff from Peterborough in the OHA Junior League.

Connolly has scored 48 goals in 47 games with the Pees in the past season. He and Ruff are 19 years old. Both will be on trial and are eligible for eight games before they turn pro.

Coach Floyd Curry says he's happy with the return of the two players.

Both boys will practice with the Royals tomorrow, and Curry expects them to be back in the line-up for their game.

At the time the Royals' Canada Mounted Police were hit in the night, Trail was leading 6-3.

The game was called at 14:30 in the final period when the riot got out of hand.

The melee began with a player making a remark. Words led to the stick swinging in which a number of the players were hurt.

George Ferguson of Trail who was hit on the head in the game says it was "the most disgusting thing I've ever seen."

He said the refereeing was very poor and that he believed why the game got out of hand.
